DAY TWO: TREK FROM SANKRI TO SIKOLTA

- Our trek begins with a climb through a tranquil pine forest, where you might spot native birds. We'll reach Sikolta, then explore the picturesque Juda ka Talab and take in views of snow-capped peaks. We'll camp overnight in this serene setting before continuing our journey the next day.

TRIP ITINERARY

DAY THREE: TREK FROM SIKOLTA TO BHOJ GADI

- As we continue our trek, we'll cross a wooden bridge and climb to the scenic "Karsu Thatch," adorned with wildflowers and an abandoned house. The path continues to Bhoj Gadi, a lush meadow with stunning views of Kedarkantha and Swargarohini peaks. Enjoy the serene atmosphere and picturesque surroundings at this beautiful campsite.

DAY FOUR: TREK FROM BHOJ GADI TO PUSHTARA VIA PHULARA RIDGE

- Begin with a dazzling sunrise and prepare for the trek's highlight. Trek an hour from Bhoj Gadi to Phulara Ridge for panoramic views of the Garhwal Himalayan ranges, including Swargarohini and Bandarpoonch. Descend to Pushtara Bugyal, a meadow rich in flowers and home to the rare Monal pheasant, and camp amidst its stunning beauty.

TRIP ITINERARY

DAY FIVE: TREK FROM PUSHTARA TO TALUKA AND DRIVE TO SANKRI

- Descend through lush forests and Pushtara meadows toward Taluka village, where you can enjoy the beauty of yellow wildflowers and playful langooors. The village offers a glimpse into local life with friendly residents and curious children. After reaching Taluka, we'll return to Sankri, where you can spend the evening exploring local shops for souvenirs before spending the night.
